Thank you for your generosity to St. James Parish

The readings set before us for the Sundays of Lent are extraordinarily rich. On the first Sunday the Gospel is always that of the temptations of Jesus, read from one of the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke). This year it is Matthew's account which is read. Jesus, filled with the Spirit received at His Baptism, is now led by the same Spirit to the place of encounter with the devil. He who was willing to undergo the Baptism usually reserved for sinners now submits to the challenge of evil. He who showed solidarity with sinners, now confronts the power of sin. There is a profound mystery here. The sinless one, who comes to save sinners, is nevertheless tempted, for Jesus in His humanity has the same power of choice that we have. While we frequently succumb to the lure of evil, Jesus never does. Three distinct temptations invite Him to abuse His miraculous powers for selfish ends (turning stones into bread), to manipulate His relationship with the Father (leaping from the temple parapet), and to collude with evil to gain dominion over the world (worshipping the devil). Jesus confounds the devil on each occasion by quoting from the Book of Deuteronomy. The Scriptures urge us to pursue what is good and to worship the one, true God. The behaviour of Jesus in the Gospel contrasts sharply with that of Adam and Eve in the reading from Genesis as they succumb to temptation. St. Paul, writing to the Romans in the second reading, explains the effects of the disobedience of Adam and the obedience of Jesus.

From where does Jesus derive His strength in His battle with evil?

To what extent do the Scriptures inspire my decisions?

Pray for the courage to unmask the deceptive power of evil. Pray for the wisdom to reject selfishness and the strength to confront evil.

Take a Deep Dive into Liturgy this Lent

Join a small group Lenten Study each Monday at St. James Parish Center through April 6th from 7-8:30 pm.

"Opening The Word", a program on Formed.org to will be utilized to guide our spiritual journey as we seek the Lord through prayer, studying scripture and group discussion. The website includes a prayer journal that we will work through each week.

Diocesan Evening of Confession

Wednesday, March 11th there will be a diocesan wide evening of Confessions from 5-8 pm. St. James will have confession in the Parish Center in the Chapel.

Fr. Donald Oleksiak

Father Donald Oleksiak to govern the diocese as administrator until the Pope chooses another Bishop for Cleveland.

The College of Consultors in the Diocese of Cleveland has elected Reverend Donald P. Oleksiak of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland as the diocesan administrator until Holy Father Pope Francis names a new bishop of the diocese. This election and vote of the consultors was required by canon law and put into motion by the pope's appointment of former Cleveland Bishop Nelson Perez to serve as the new archbishop of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia on January 23rd.

Encounter Jesus this Lent

Extended Hours of Eucharistic Adoration

Wednesday, February 26th-Wednesday April 11th
Mondays, Thursdays, & Saturdays

In the Adoration Chapel at St. Clement Church

6:30 AM-8:30 PM

Fridays ~ In the Church 12:00-5:00 PM

New this year, the Chapel will be open for 3 additional days so anyone interested can drop in and spend time with Jesus ~ Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We are continuing our Lenten tradition of Friday Adoration in the church with the Rosary (12:00 PM) and the Divine Mercy Chaplet (3:00 PM) included. 5:15 Mass and then Stations of the Cross at 6:00 PM will conclude the evening.

Looking for more this Lent? Consider committing to one hour of Adoration during each week of Lent. Experience how Jesus takes this sacrifice and transforms it into a gift for you.

NOTICE: If you are having a Saturday or Sunday Mass for a particular intention/person and would like to bring up the gifts of bread and wine, please notify an usher before Mass begins.
