The Season of ORDINARY TIME

Last week, we heard Peter's profession of faith in Jesus as the Messiah and the words spoken by Christ to Peter: "You are Peter and on this rock I will build my church." The conversation between Jesus and Peter continues in today's gospel and takes a very different turn. The suffering and death of Jesus will cast a shadow over the rest of the gospel. Peter is shocked to hear Jesus speak for the first time of His approaching suffering, death and Resurrection, shocked that the Messiah should suffer such a fate. Amid the differing opinions about God's Messiah, there was no expectation of suffering and death. Jesus Himself, however, understood that the Messiah was also to be a "suffering servant." The lesson for Peter is a lesson for all. Whatever our position in the Church, we must be open to the unexpected ways of God, ready to learn new things, not to prefer "man's way" to God's. The Christian is not called to position and prosperity in this world, but to self-sacrifice in the service of others. This is a constant challenge, which will often lead us on narrow and difficult paths. We can only face this reality knowing that Jesus has trodden the path before us, and that this road leads to the fullness of life. The first reading, from one of the "confessions" of the prophet Jeremiah, reveals the prophet's struggle and enduring commitment to preaching the word.

Am I open to the unexpected ways of God?

What are the crosses in my life that I refuse to carry willingly?

Let us pray for the courage and endurance we need in our Christian lives. Let us pray for all who seek to alleviate the sufferings of others.

AM 1260 The Rock is praying for you! AM 1260 The Rock prays daily for the intentions of our listeners. In addition, the nuns at Christ the Bridegroom Monastery in Burton pray for your intentions as well. Send your prayer request to: prayers@am1260therock.com or call us at 216-227-1260, option 1.
