For this and the following two Sundays, we shall be hearing lengthy passages from the Gospel of John, chosen to help us prepare for Easter and the celebration of our new life in Jesus Christ. Due to the length of the reading only the opening verses are given here (verses 5-15). You are invited to complete the reading, which ends in verse 42, in your own Bible. The Samaritan woman gradually learns more about Jesus and what He offers her. Her journey reflects our own journey of faith. The dialogue begins with Jesus seeking a drink and then offering “living water” to the woman. Water gives life. The “living water” given by Jesus points to eternal life. As the dialogue continues, it is established that Jesus is not only a prophet, but the Messiah. The woman's eyes are gradually opening, enough for her to go and tell her townspeople. At the end, they too come to believe, not simply due to her testimony but because they have themselves heard the preaching of Jesus. In the middle of the chapter we hear about the need to worship “in spirit and truth” (verse 23). Jesus comes, and this chapter shows it, to bring together the Jews, the Samaritans and all the nations of the earth in the worship of the one, true God.

How is the Samaritan woman a model for our faith journey?

Are we also sometimes slow to understand the gifts of God?

We pray that we may worship the Lord in spirit and truth. We pray for the courage to lead others to Christ, the teacher who gives us “living water.”

Take a Deep Dive into Liturgy

You are invited to join a small group Lenten Study each Monday at St. James Parish Center through April 6th from 7-8:30 pm. "Opening The Word," a program on Formed.org, will be utilized to guide our spiritual journey as we seek the Lord through prayer, studying scripture and group discussion. The website includes a prayer journal that we will work through each week.

LIVING STATIONS

Living Stations is a live action reenactment of the Stations of the Cross, featuring music from artists of today and our area high school students.

The Living Stations is a combination of the 14 traditional Stations of the Cross and the Scriptural Stations as introduced by Pope Saint John Paul II. Each scene powerfully displays humanity and humility, clearly demonstrating the painful journey Jesus had to endure. This prayerful service is a spiritual experience that will enrich your Lenten journey and will stay with you throughout the year.

Upcoming presentations will be held:

Sunday, March 29 ~ St. Christopher Parish ***

Palm Sunday, April 5 ~ St. James Parish ***

Good Friday, April 10 ~ St. Mark Parish ***

* All Parishes will start at 7:00 PM

En route to his Eagle Scout award, John progressed through the many ranks, and his path to Eagle Scout took an additional four years.
