FEST 2020 is a little more than a month away, and we need volunteer help to assemble craft kits, put together giveaways, host watch parties and more! To get involved and learn more – visit www.theFEST.us/volunteer. It will still take hundreds of volunteers to make The FEST possible this year. Volunteers will get a free t-shirt and make this wonderful day of faith, family and fun possible.

The Season of ORDINARY TIME

These are the concluding words of the Missionary Discourse of Jesus, the second of his major speeches in the Gospel of Matthew. Jesus challenges the disciples, and us too, to put no other person before our faith in him. For Christians there are new family ties, which, though not undermining our love of those dear to us, give us a broader perspective and a considerable challenge. The cross is mentioned for the first time in Matthew's gospel, not the cross of Jesus, but the difficult burden that each one must bear in imitation of him. We are called to give our lives as Christ himself will give his life. But the embrace of missionary discipleship offers us new joys. Those who offer a welcome to the disciples of Christ forge a relationship with Jesus, and with 'the one who sent him'. Friendships are transformed and offer us a wider and everlasting scope. How we treat others in this life, particularly the 'little ones', will bring us close to Jesus and to the one who sent him. The first reading tells us how the prophet Elisha, centuries before Christ, received generous hospitality from a woman of Shunem. Her kindness is rewarded in an extraordinary way.

Do I place my faith in Jesus first in my life and relationships?

Am I willing to embrace my cross, whatever form it may take?

We pray for those who make great sacrifices in their service of the Gospel.

Four Ways to Find Peace

When the world around us looks very different from what we expect, we lose the calming soothing peace Christ wants to give us. Try these tips for a more peaceful life.

1. Don't fear what is coming next. Fearing consequences of the pandemic, finances, feeling anxious about your health can lead to frustration and dismay. Instead be open and place all your hopes, plans, and efforts in God, let Him handle your concerns.
2. Be kind and gentle. Resentment, anger and frustration rob you of peace. Be gentle and considerate of your neighbor. Remember Jesus was "meek and humble of heart". (Matthew 11:29)
3. Learn to live with what you cannot control. When you let God help you rise above such things, you will have the peace acceptance brings.
4. Consult the Church for answers. It isn't always easy for us to discern God's will, so Jesus created the Catholic Church. When in doubt turn to Scripture, the Catechism, or the Bible or a special prayer, to search for answers. After all that's what they are here for.

Growing in Faith

St. James Community Meals Program

COMMUNITY MEALS
— LOVE IN ACTION —

We had our Community Dinner on the 2nd Wednesday of the month. I did not feel comfortable making the April dinner, but I helped with the dinners for May and June. In May we served ham and cheese sandwiches, and for this past Wednesday we made meatloaf sandwiches. A thick slice of meatloaf and a slice of cheese on a large bun, an apple, a bag of chips, and 2 homemade cookies. Patti Cardone and Joellen Lotti (from St. Mark's) made the desserts. Corky O'Sullivan and Michelle Smith distributed the bagged dinners from the parking lot. Although I did not stay to distribute I did observe several cars pulling up and they seemed gratified to get the food. One man pulled up in a station wagon that looks like he lives in it. He is a regular at our dinners and it was like seeing an old friend. I am proud to be a part of this community service. Thank you for all you do for the St. James community. You are in my prayers, Laureen Nowakowski.

Community Meals are serving every 2nd Wednesday of the month, if you would like to donate your time or make a dessert, please feel free to contact the parish office via phone message or email.
